

CLASS OF 2015 SUMMER READING

MUST READ: The Cheat by Amy Goldman Koss

You must also read 1 book of your choice that is a non - fiction book. Your choice must be at least 200 pages in length. Your reading material should be on grade level and the focus must be a positive focus.

You must return to school with one of the following presentations about your book choice:

1. Prepare a PowerPoint presentation that includes the title, author, setting, character analysis, plot, and your personal opinion with supporting details. Make sure that your presentation is colorful and interesting. Include the book itself within the presentation. Be prepared to present your work on the first day of school.
2. Prepare a video that includes the same information as listed in number 1 above. You may give your report in an interview form with someone asking you questions about your book or, you may give your report as an ACS resident book reviewer. Be sure to include the book itself as part of your presentation. It must be discussed in a manner that will hold the audience's attention. Make sure that you use a recording device that can be plugged into a computer. This will be due on the first day of school.

Assigned Reading

As you read The Cheat, be sure to keep notes on each character in the book. You will be assigned a character with a project upon return to school. This project will be completed in a short period of time. This is why it is important to keep good notes.
