Principal's Newsletter

September 25, 2020

Dear ACS Parents:

Monday starts our last week in September and things are starting to slowly become routine. With many prayers and guidance, we are pleased with our new protocols. Our ACS students have been amazing.

Masks: As stated before all students are required to walk into the building with a mask UNLESS they provide a doctor's note. You can call and speak to the nurse on Tuesday.

Things you have received:

*Speech papers for students in grades K and 1 need to be returned ASAP.

*Lunch: Order Forms went home last week for the whole month. *Snack: Students are allowed to bring in a light snack and water for the day (remember water fountains are closed).

*After Care: for students in grades PK-2nd grade 5:00pm. 21CCLC after school Program for grades 3 to 6th is until 5:15pm. Please fill out the permission forms. We spent home extra ones.

If you have any questions or concerns, please give us a call.

Any questions please feel free to call.

God Bless, Mrs. Shumny
