Pick one: Biography or Autobiography Book to read of your choice

Report Presentation: In the assignment, you will read a biography or autobiography, which is a factual story about a person's life. You will then pretend to be this person in a dramatic presentation to the class. You are to dress up and use props. You may use note cards to assist you in your presentation.

 Please keep in mind that "dressing up" as your person does NOT have to be expensive or elaborate! (Wearing a paper hat counts as dressing up!) Please do not spend a lot of money on this! Keep it simple!

To prepare this five- minute VIDEO presentation, you will need to organize your notes to decide which facts will be the most interesting to share. Plan and organize your presentation so that you can portray your individual in an interesting way.

These are the facts that you MUST share:

- Name of the person
- Author of the book you read
- Date of birth/location of birth
- Family history
- Childhood
- At least 2 unique facts
- What is your person known for? What is their greatest achievement?
- Is your person still alive? What are they doing today? If not, when did your person die?

Practice your presentation, speak clearly, record it, send it through Google classroom and have fun!
