Principal's Newsletter

September 24, 2021

Dear ACS Parents and Guardians,

MAP Testing starts Monday. I've attached a short Q & A sheet to answer some questions. This assessments helps us navigate your child's academic progress and goals. So please get to bed on time and eat a healthy breakfast and let's get to work!

As we start the last week in September here are a few reminders:

1. Masks – no one loves them but we have to follow protocol. There have been several articles on the change of mask requirements for schools, yet nothing from the Department of Education. As soon as a change comes through, we will let you know.
2. Planners & Homework – School Planners are in our handbook and a way to show our students responsibility and organization. Give us a chance to show them how to write their homework down, how to make sure they have all their materials, and the importance of being organized.
3. Water Bottles – fountains are still closed, so please make sure you pack your child enough water - ESPECIALLY on gym days.
4. Dress Down – our first $3 Dress down day will be Friday, October 1st. Please read the Handbook – no torn jeans, tight fitting cloths or flip flops. Teachers will review the policy.
5. October Menu and Calendar will go home on Thursday.
6. Cafeteria – we are moving to two lunches starting Monday. We have added tables to our auditorium and are confident we can now move to two lunch periods.

Any questions or concerns please give me a call!

God Bless, Mrs. Shummy
