Dear ACS Parents and Guardians,

Happy November! October was a very busy month to say the least. Here's a "short" list:

- *Fire Department Visit
- *Hispanic Heritage Month Projects
- *Visit from Father Roman
- *Fall Celebration: Cereal Project celebration, presentations, fall celebrations, treats
- *FSA: Successful Book Fair & Trunk or Treat
- *21CCCLC Clubs galore!
- *New Ukrainian Teachers & Sisters on the block
- *Full day Professional Development
- *New playground games, two lunch periods, new third grade teacher, Grand Falloons AND THE LIST GOES ON!

As I said on REMIND, we are a small school with a lot of spirit with a desire to give our students as many positive experiences as possible as well as serve our community.

SO WELCOME NOVEMBER! Please review the November Calendar and pay attention to the changes in Phys Ed schedule (I switch the day when we have a half day so we don't have a shortened period - the kids need gym!). We also have Picture Day scheduled for November 18th. These pictures are taken in school uniform.

God Bless, Mrs. Shumny
